

Romans: The Foundations of Our Faith

Homework

Part Six

1. What two instances are justified for Christians to be defiant to civil authority?

1.

2.

2. True or False

Obedience to God takes precedence over obedience to man.

3. According to Romans 13:7-8, what should a biblical approach to debt look like?

4. Paul lists 5 commandments from the Law of Moses that relate to our relationships with one another: Adultery, Murder, Stealing, Lying, Coveting. How does the "Law of Love" cover each of these 5 commandments?

5. Now that you are awake, and now that you are aware of God's continuing intervention in your life through salvation, what should you wear?

6. Fill in the blanks.

Dress up and put on the armor of _____! The armor of light is compared to your defense or protection. Light, is the revealed _____ of God through Jesus Christ.

Putting on the light occurs when you understand and apply the _____ truth of Jesus to your life.

7. By allowing yourself to be changed by the inner working of the Spirit of God you become increasingly like Jesus Christ, give six examples of how you can "Put on" the Lord Jesus Christ.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

8. Fill in the blanks.

We have liberty but we _____ one another; and because of this _____, we refrain from that which would cause another to _____ and _____.

9. What quote did Augustine of the Fourth Century give as a reminder of balancing the Law of Love and The Law of Liberty?

10. What are you to do with those who cause division based on doctrine that is in opposition to that which you have learned from the Book of Romans?

11. In Romans 16:25-26 Paul proclaims the item that was previously hidden and it is now manifested. What is this mystery?